Hirschstetten Botanical Gardens

Exchange your vows within a magnificent world of flowers and plants. The Wedding Garden, Indian Garden and Mexican Garden are also available for the nuptial ceremony. In inclement weather, the Palm House is used.

Weingut Cobenzl

Say "I do" at the City of Vienna's wine estate at the cusp of the Vienna Woods and the outskirts of the capital. Celebrate your nuptials among the vineyards as you take in unparalleled views of Vienna and the Danube. Exchange vows in the romantic wine cellar, followed by an outdoor champagne reception.

Liechtenstein Garden Palace

Experience one of the most beautiful moments of your life in the grand baroque ambience of the Liechtenstein Garden Palace and its romantic park. Exchange your marriage vows in the Sala Terrena or the Hercules Room.

Top secret wedding venues

Psst... pass it on – the imperial city offers a whole host of highly unique venues for your dream wedding, including vintage tramcars and the Donauturm tower, as well as various museums and palaces.

Celebrate an unforgettable wedding day

Exchange vows in Vienna – steeped in imperial charm, yet famous for embracing change, Vienna is a city for true romantics. Say “I do” in the Austrian capital, where the first dance plays out to the dulcet tones of waltz music, and the past and present go together like horse and carriage.

Inspirational locations for your wedding day

Choose one of the Austrian capital's finest venues for your wedding and revel in Vienna's cultural heritage and inimitable zest for life.

Giant Ferris Wheel

Float above the world below, savor an unforgettable view of Vienna's historic city center and delight in the pleasures of the Prater amusement park: Have your wedding 65m above ground on the Giant Ferris Wheel, a landmark built in 1896/7. Fly away to seventh heaven together in a luxury art nouveau carriage.

Schönbrunn Palace

Adore imperial flair? Then tie the knot at the 1,441-room former Habsburg summer residence where Baroque-era regent Maria Theresa held court with her husband and 16 children. Marry in the palace that Empress Elisabeth and her beloved Franz called home. Celebrate in style with a glittering wedding ceremony and reception in one of the opulent white and gold wedding rooms where priceless chandeliers and stunning stucco work set the scene for a day to remember.

Belvedere

Exchange vows at the magnificent Belvedere Palace, the former residence of legendary general Prince Eugene of Savoy. Choose between the Upper Belvedere which offers stunning views of Vienna, and the charming Lower Belvedere which includes the beautiful gardens of the Orangery.

City Hall

Follow in the footsteps of knights and dignitaries as you take to the red carpet and ascend the grand staircase inside City Hall. Declare your undying love for each other in the Steinerne Saal (Stone Hall).

Butterfly House

Find true happiness in the Butterfly House, a magnificent art nouveau glass house, surrounded by hundreds of exotic butterflies in every color, fluttering around glorious blooms, giant trees and waterfalls of the tropical rainforest. Receive your wedding guests in front of this historic structure with its grand views of the Imperial Palace and the majestic Burggarten.
